Seen & Heard Around MURRAY

You have heard of the saying about it might have been better to have stayed in bed, particularly after a trying day.

We imagine that the fellow who made the following report must have thought of this after his experience.

This comes from Airline Pilot Magazine and was sent to us by a reader.

"The following is the original text of an accident report submitted by an employee of the U.S. government in Vietnam:

"When I arrived at MACV II Building T-1040 to fix it, I found that the barrel had dislodged a large number of tiles from the roof. So I rigged up a beam with a pulley at the top of the building and hoisted up a couple of barrels full of tile.

"When I fixed the building, there was a lot of tile left. I hoisted the barrel back up again and secured the line at the bottom, and then went up and filled the barrel with the extra tile. Then I went down to the bottom and cast off the line.

"Unfortunately, the barrel of the tile was heavier than I was before I knew what was happening. The barrel started down, jerking me off the ground. I decided to hang on and half way up I met the barrel coming down, receiving a severe blow on the shoulder.

"I then continued to the top, banging my head against the beam and getting my fingers jammed in the pulley. When the barrel hit the ground it burst its bottom, throwing all the tile to split out. I was now heavier than the barrel and so started down again at high speed.

"Halfway down I met the barrel coming up, and received severe injuries by my chin. When I hit the ground I landed on the tile, getting several painful cuts from the sharp edges.

"At this point I must have lost my presence of mind because I let go of the line. The barrel then came down, giving me another heavy blow on the head and putting me in the hospital.

"I respectfully request sick leave."

We hope the poor guy got his sick leave.

Hiram Tucker is scheduled for another operation today at the Murray Hospital. Our best wishes go to him.

Sneak Shoot Will Be Held Saturday And Sunday Here

The annual Jackson Purchase Open Street Championships will be conducted Saturday and Sunday, July 15-16, at the Jackson Purchase Gun Club on the Mayfield-Murray Highway in Calloway County.

Contestants from a three-state area are expected to enter this year's meet to challenge defending Open champion Ralph Hughes of Paducah.

The colorful shooter from Paducah popped 100 targets out of a possible 100 in 1966 to take the Open championship trophy in the all-gauge event.

In claiming last year's championship, Hughes broke Dr. Keith Hannon's domination of the Jackson Purchase Open championship after the Louisville physician claimed the title in 1963-64-65.

Thirteen main events will be determined in the two-day Open event, beginning at 8 a.m. Saturday and ending Sunday afternoon.

The Jackson Purchase Gun Club will host a party, featuring the famous "Jackson Purchase hospital," beginning Saturday evening at the conclusion of the 20-gauge event.

The Sheriff's office reported that the safe at the Lynn Grove Feed and Seed Company at Lynn Grove was blown open on Monday night.

Officers said the door of the safe was blown off, but said if the persons had checked they would have found that the safe was open and there was no need to go to all that trouble.

The autos of Edna Payne, Robert Kriebel and Mrs. Apperson had stopped for a turning auto and Jane Shoemaker, unable to stop her auto, crashed into the rear of the Apperson auto, knocking it into the auto of Kriebel, knocking Kriebel into the Payne vehicle, the police report said.

Two of the autos were heavily damaged.

Nationals Win All Star Game In 15 Innings

By ALEX KAHN
UPI Sports Writer
ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — The Nationals have possibly worked out more perfectly for the National League, which now has added its All-Star supremacy to five straight and proved to Hank Bauer that he can be beaten.

For Manager Walt Alton the 21st National League win Tuesday gave him one of his few cheerful moments since last fall when Bauer's Orioles beat his Dodgers four straight times in the World Series. The 15th inning homer by Tony Perez of Cincinnati which won the game for the Nationals was another vindication for Alton's choice in picking as a supplemental choice for the All-Star squad. The 38th All-Star game, expected to be a hitless game, turned into a battle of third basemen and tight pitching.

All the runs were driven in on homers by third basemen and the supposedly tired National League mound staff came up with just a little extra stuff to win the longest game in the history of the mid-summer classic.

Rest Doesn't Count
The talk before the game was that the American League had a pitching advantage with five rested hurlers. Alton had only one pitcher who had not worked last weekend, Houston's Mike Cuellar. He got into the game but it was a tired Don Drysdale of Alton's Dodgers who got the win as the NL's sixth pitcher.

One of Bauer's rested pitchers, Jim Catfish Hunter, was the victim of Perez' drive over the left-field fence that broke up the lengthy contest before 46,300 fans in Anaheim Stadium.

"You have to be pleased with the kind of pitching we got," Alton said. "Every one of our pitchers did a fine job, even to young Tom Seaver of the Mets who closed it all up in the last inning."

Bauer had gruffly stated before the game that he didn't come all the way to Anaheim to get beaten and his strategy would be built around the idea of winning more than losing.

Some of the records were painted to the players who set them. Roberto Clemente of the Pirates struck out four times to break the mark of three in an All-Star game held by eight men. And Alton along with Tony Oliva of the Twins tied the old mark by fanning three times.

Today is Wednesday, July 12th, the 194th day of 1967 with 172 to follow.

The moon is between its new phase and first quarter.

The morning star is Saturn. The evening stars are Venus and Mars.

Born on this day in 1817 was American poet Henry David Thoreau.

On this day in history: In 1862, the Medal of Honor was authorized by the U.S. Congress.

In 1933, a new industrial code was established to set up a minimum wage of 40 cents an hour in the United States.

In 1941, German armies cracked the "Shahin line" in Russia and began their march toward Moscow.

In 1961, 72 persons died when a Conchobolokian plane crashed in Africa.

A thought for the day: American poet Henry Thoreau once said: "That man is the richest whose pleasures are the cheapest."

"ner" at third base came through with flying colors.

Richie Allen of the Phillies, who started for the Nationals at third, got them off to a 1-0 lead in the second. And Brooks Robinson of the Orioles evened it up with his sixth inning homer, with Perez coming up with the clincher.

The game was a statistical delight. It lasted three hours and 41 minutes to become the longest in All-Star history. And a record 39 strikeouts were posted by the 12 pitchers who shared the mound duty.

The Nationals had an edge in that department also, posting 17 strikeouts to 13 for their junior circuit rivals.

Increase Winning Streak
It was the fifth extra-inning victory in All-Star competition for the Nats who have yet to lose a game that went beyond the regulation length. It was the ninth win in the last 10 games to tie the Nationals' record to 20 victories against 17 defeats and one tie.

There was much question that Perez would be awarded the trophy as the game's most valuable player after his homer and he accepted the tribute with a happy grin.

Some of the records were painted to the players who set them. Roberto Clemente of the Pirates struck out four times to break the mark of three in an All-Star game held by eight men. And Alton along with Tony Oliva of the Twins tied the old mark by fanning three times.

Let Lonely Woman Have Her Fun

Woman in our town who is a real weird character. She lives alone on some sort of pension. (They say her husband ran off and left her years ago.) She loves to get all dressed up and go where people are.

Well, she must think her church membership entitles her to attend all the social functions that take place in the social hall of her church, because she never misses one. The fact that she's not invited doesn't seem to bother her.

She goes to all the teas, receptions, and parties where refreshments are served, mingles with the guests, helps herself to everything, and has a very good time.

Isn't it the minister's place to tell her she should stay away? He sees her at all the gatherings and surely knows she hasn't been invited.

CHURCH MEMBER: If anyone is to discourage an uninvited guest, it should be the hostess. The poor woman is probably lonely. And if she causes no harm and enjoys herself, what's another place of church and a few cookies amid the socializing?

DEAR ABBY: I've always been a big fan of yours, but now I'm a bigger fan than ever, and here's why:

While out at Arlington race track the other day I came across a horse named GABBY ABBY, so I had a bunch and bet a bunch. The horse came in and paid over $55.

CHAS. FROM ELMHURST
DEAR CHAS: I've been told that I have "horse sense" (that's the kind one finds in a STABLE mind). And horse sense is what keeps horses from betting on people.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to speak for grandmothers who feel as I do but don't have the courage to complain.

Why do young mothers think that since we have raised our family and now have some leisure time that we have NOTHING to do so they give us the grandchildren to raise while they go out and work?

Miss Mohundro And Thomas E. Thorn Married July 3
The marriage of Miss Rita Sue Mohundro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mohundro of Murray, to Thomas Edward Thorn, son of Mrs. Tommy Thorn and the late Mr. Thorn of Murray, has been announced.

Rev. Charles Hart, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Shawneetown, Ill., performed the double ring ceremony on Monday, July 3, at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dick were the sponsors for the couple.

For her wedding the bride chose to wear a white street length dress fashioned double breasted with a row waist with belt. Her accessories were white.

Mrs. Dick was attired in a blue ensemble with white accessories.

The bride attended Calloway County High School and is now employed at Salant Salant, Inc., at Paris, Tenn. Mr. Thorn, a graduate of New Concord High School, served in the United States Army and is now employed at General Tire and Rubber Company, Mayfield.

Mrs. Dick was now residing at 406 South Eighth Street, Murray.

DELINQUENCY MEETING
The first Kentucky Youth Conference on Juvenile Delinquency will be held August 14-16 at Eastern Kentucky University at Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Thorn are now residing at 406 South Eighth Street, Murray.

Nothing better than a family get-together.

Such was the case last night when Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Simmons our new-to-town had a big bunch of folks in for a fine dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Anderson of Mayfield, her parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Coy Simmons, Bernice's folks, and our end of the family all were there.

We should know better than just to sit there and eat all we can, but that is exactly what we did. Good food and good company make a great combination. Throw in an All-Star game in color with everyone on their toes and it made for a delightful evening.

There is much to say for large families. At any rate you never get that feeling that you are alone.

A Drink Will Not Improve Your Skill

In spite of warnings issued by safety experts against mixing alcohol and hunting, there are still more who argue that a drink or three will improve one's skill.

Nothing could be further from the truth. Alcohol has nothing to do with improving one's shooting accuracy. Actually it works to the contrary. Several years ago when Dr. E. M. Jellinek was head of the Yale University School of Alcohol studies, he surveyed more than 200 studies of alcohol users. These studies were made by psychologists and physicians here and abroad. Not one of them showed that alcohol in either small or large doses ever improved the skill or performance of the persons tested.

Although the alcohol did nothing to improve a person's skill, Dr. Jellinek did note that alcohol tended to make a person more confident. In one test, sharpshooters expressed a higher degree of confidence after imbibing small amounts of whiskey, but their tests showed that they hit fewer bull-eyes. Typists similarly primed with liquor felt extremely confident and even increased their typing speed, but they made considerably more errors in their work. Fatigued people felt their tiredness vanish, but their actual muscular output was decreased. In another group, the time needed to memorize 25 lines of written material was nearly doubled.

Don't be fooled. Alcohol does not increase one's efficiency in the classroom, on the job, in the woods tracking deer, or elsewhere. It may increase a person's confidence, but the skill is always decreased.

Another effect of alcohol is that it decreases self-criticism. In other words, alcohol can make you do a thing better, but it may make you less ashamed of your mistakes.

riddles of the universe. Of the more than 1800 meteorite falls throughout the world, only about 12 have been the same class as the ones which fell here. They are known to science as carbonaceous chondrites.

Now in 1967 scientists are again making an appeal to all Calloway County residents to aid science with its research by sending any meteorites from the 1960 fall to:

Research Division
Potomac Station
Box 2273
Alexandria, Virginia 22301

All meteorites received will be carefully weighed and a reward of $50.00 a pound will be returned by mail. Residents are encouraged to look in boxes, drawers and closets, or any other places where they might have been put years ago and forgotten. They appear as smooth black rocks on the surface and even when fragmented the interiors are black with very small light gray inclusions. In weight they are not quite as heavy as an ordinary rock.
